Day 04: Málaga, Spain

Sheltered by mountains, Málaga welcomes you with palm-lined promenades, famous shopping streets, historic churches and a marina packed with lively restaurants. Discover the city where Picasso was born, visit his museum and explore the historic centre. Browse big-name stores and local artisan boutiques, then head up to Gibralfaro Castle for panoramic views of the city and bay.

Day 05: Gibraltar

Arrive in captivating Gibraltar to discover a unique blend of British charm and Mediterranean character. Head up to the Rock to see the famous monkeys – the Barbary macaques – and explore St Michael's Cave, then return to Main Street for duty-free shops, cafes and restaurants. When visiting in December, enjoy the Christmas lights and festive atmosphere around town.

Day 06: Casablanca, Morocco

Casablanca is a city where modern style meets Morocco's rich traditions. Start with the Hassan II Mosque and its intricate Moroccan craftsmanship, then wander through the Habous Quarter, known for traditional market streets, artisan shops, booksellers and spice stalls, before enjoying local Moroccan dishes.

Day 07: Cádiz, Spain

Steeped in more than 3,000 years of history, Cádiz reveals the charm behind its nickname, La Tacita de Plata ('the Little Silver Cup'), with winding whitewashed streets on a peninsula encircled by the sea. Wander through El Pópulo, the atmospheric old quarter, climb the Tavira, a historic watchtower, for rooftop views, then taste fresh seafood near La Caleta beach.

Day 08: Lisbon, Portugal

Lisbon welcomes you with panoramic views over the Tagus River, tiled facades, and hilltop viewpoints made for wandering. Explore the colorful streets of the Alfama district, admire Belém Tower and Jerónimos Monastery, then pause for a fresh pastel de nata, Portugal's famous custard tart, as the sound of fado music fills the city's old streets.
