

8D7N Arctic Svalbard/Spitsbergen Fjords & Glaciers Test

Trip Overview

Somewhere in the High Arctic, between 76 and 80 degrees latitude North, Spitsbergen, meaning "pointed mountains", awaits you for seven days of unforgettable travel looking out for wild life. You will lift the anchor in Longyearbyen, where colourful wooden homes dot the landscape with a human presence that will certainly be the last you see for a while.

Trip Highlights

- International air ticket
- Airport transfer
- Gratuities

Trip Itinerary

  - Group transfer to the airport terminal.
  - Fly from Paris to Longyearbyen on chartered flight provided by Ponant. 3.5hrs flight
  - Upon arrival meet & greet at the airport by our local English-speaking representative.
  - Transfer to the pier for embarkation.
  - Your cruise ship is ready for boarding. Embarkation from 16h00 to 17h00.
  - Ship sailing at 18h00.

Day 03: HORNSUND

- Nestling between millennial glaciers and carved mountains, and considered to be “the crown of Arctic Norway”, Spitsbergen is a place that never sees the night.
  - Your ship will take you closer to this fascinating archipelago and, more particularly, the Hornsund fjord.
  - Considered to be Svalbard's southernmost fjord, it is especially reputed to be its most stunning: at the end of its vast bay, 8 great glaciers slowly make their way down to the sea before giving way to the many icebergs elegantly drifting along its cold and mysterious waters.
